

Media Release

The Wiggles welcomed into the Australian Music Vault

Photo credit: supplied by The Wiggles

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, 3 MAY 2022 – Australian children's music supergroup The Wiggles will be welcomed into the Australian Music Vault to commemorate their 2022 Ted Albert Award for Outstanding Service to Australian Music. Some of the band's most iconic objects are now on display in the exhibition space at Arts Centre Melbourne.

"We're really honoured to be recognised by the Australian Music Vault in this fantastic exhibition of Wiggles memorabilia. It's so great to take a trip down memory lane and see some of the amazing items from the past 30 years. I'm not sure what Jeff will do without his purple skivvy as we still have a show to play in Adelaide next weekend, but I'm sure we'll figure something out!" says Blue Wiggle, Anthony Field.

Objects on display include:

- Custom Maton Mastersound MS500 guitar signed by past and present members of The Wiggles 2015-2022
- Original prop sword used by Paul Paddick as Captain Feathersword for performances with The Wiggles –1995-2022
- Purple skivvy worn by Jeff Fatt when performing with The Wiggles c.1991-2012
- ARIA Hall of Fame awarded to Anthony Field of The Wiggles 2011, and many more.

Formed in Sydney in 1991, The Wiggles have been entertaining and delighting generations of children all over the world for more than 30 years. Adorned in coloured skivvies and accompanied by the characters Captain Feathersword, Dorothy the Dinosaur, Henry the Octopus and Wags the Dog, The Wiggles have forged their own cultural landscape fostering a love of music in millions of children.

Their evolution is unlike any other. While undertaking studies in early childhood education, Anthony Field (Blue Wiggle) recruited fellow university students Murray Cook (Red Wiggle) and Greg Page (Yellow Wiggle) alongside Jeff Fatt (Purple Wiggle) to record an album for children.

Major partners

Media Release

Today, they are a global brand who have embarked on multiple international tours, sold over 30 million albums and DVDs, released 59 studio albums, won 13 ARIA Awards for Best Children's Album, and been inducted into the ARIA Hall of Fame.

Their line-up has changed throughout the years from former members Sam Moran and Emma Watkins to the current line-up of Anthony Field (Blue Wiggle), Tsehay Hawkins (Yellow Wiggle), Lachlan Gillespie (Purple Wiggle) and Simon Pryce (Red Wiggle), who continue to delight children of all ages with their playful exploration of everyday life through music and movement.

To read more about the history of The Wiggles, read Jane Gazzo's piece at australianmusicvault.com.au. She spoke to Anthony's eldest brother Paul Field who managed The Wiggles for 24 years.

The display is open now until the end of July. The AMV is a free exhibition and open daily from 10am – 5pm (no bookings required).

The prestigious Ted Albert Award is awarded annually by the Australasian Performing Right Association (APRA) in memory of pioneering independent record producer Ted Albert, whose company, Albert Productions, was home to music icons The Easybeats, AC/DC, The Angels, Rose Tattoo and John Paul Young. Previous winners of the award include The Seekers, Ian "Molly" Meldrum, Fifa Riccobono, Archie Roach, Midnight Oil, Rob Potts, Joy McKean and Helen Reddy.

To read more about previous Ted Albert Award winners Joy McKean, Helen Reddy, Rob Potts and Midnight Oil, head to australianmusicvault.com.au

Images can be found here.

The Australian Music Vault is a key initiative of the Victorian Government's Music Works strategy, in support and collaboration with the music industry. It has been developed by Arts Centre Melbourne in consultation with the music industry and is a celebration of the Australian contemporary music story – past, present and future. It's a place to explore your love of music, revisit some of the big music moments of your life and discover the exciting new stories of today's Australian music scene.

For more information about the Australian Music Vault please visit australianmusicvault.com.au or phone 1300 182 183. Become a fan of the Australian Music Vault on Facebook or Instagram.

For further media information and interviews, please contact Advisor, Media and Communications Michael Barr on 0460 309 689 or michael.barr@artscentremelbourne.com.au.

Major partners

