Writing a Review

TITLE – Write a snappy, fun and attention grabbing title for your review.

INTRODUCTION – Include what did you see (A Sonatina), where did you see it (Arts Centre Melbourne), when did you see it (the date) and who made the show (Teatret Gruppe 38).

PLOT SUMMARY - Give a brief description of the story. What happens? What are the themes?

PERFORMANCE – Describe the characters of the play. Evaluate the performance of one or two of the actors. What did you notice about their performance? What did you like about their acting?

DESIGN AND PRODUCTION – Discuss how effectively the production used set, lighting, sound / music and costumes. You don't have to include everything, just the elements that stood out to you. For example, in A Sonatina, maybe you really enjoyed how music helped created the mood and atmosphere so you may like to focus on that.

REACTION – Did you enjoy the performance? Would you recommend it to others?

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin blue border, intended for the user to write their reaction to the performance.
